

3. GOOD & ACTIVE STANDING STATUS

Pure Romance has grown into a leading force as a result of an unwavering commitment to building a respected image within the industry and among customers. This has been obtained through the actions of the Pure Romance corporate office, as well as every Consultant representing the company.

Each Pure Romance Consultant is asked to represent and sell Pure Romance products and present the Pure Romance business opportunity with the highest degree of professionalism, integrity, ethics, and accuracy. Consultants do not participate in any activity that is illegal or that in any way may be deemed detrimental to the Pure Romance name, products, opportunity, business, corporate entity, or the organization of Pure Romance Consultants. All Pure Romance Consultants are asked to follow the Pure Romance Good Standing Requirements.

3.1 Good Standing Requirements

- Dress in professional business attire for all parties and corporate events to which you are invited and in all situations while promoting Pure Romance, unless casual attire is specified. If events are casual, dress should be tasteful and appropriate.
- Refrain from the use of inappropriate language, slang, and derogatory and/or profane terms when representing Pure Romance in person and/or on social media platforms.
- Respect others' personal space and avoid inappropriate body contact.
- Accept that each person is entitled to his or her own opinions and views. Do not speak negatively about another Consultant or make that individual feel uncomfortable when her approach differs from your own.
- Do not consume alcohol or smoke at any function or party where you are representing Pure Romance.
- Treat other Pure Romance Consultants and members of the Pure Romance corporate office staff with the utmost respect and professionalism.
- Concerns regarding policies or procedures shall not be addressed to members of the Pure Romance corporate office publicly during events, meetings, or other public forums.
- Never encourage a Hostess, customer, or potential Consultant to stop doing business with another Pure Romance Consultant.
- Be present for all parties booked, or ensure that booked parties are covered by another Pure Romance Consultant in the event of an emergency.
- Process payments and fulfill customer orders in a timely manner.
- Provide ongoing customer service by addressing inquiries and concerns in a timely fashion and respect each customer's privacy by providing confidential ordering.
- Provide honest information regarding price, delivery, usage suggestions, quality, and order processing, and refrain from deceptive or unethical selling or sponsoring practices.
- Adhere to the Rules of Selling, Party Policies, and all other Pure Romance policies outlined in this Guide.
- The corporate office and/or the Board of Governors may review violations of the code of conduct.
- Maintain status as an Active Consultant who does not have outstanding balances with the Pure Romance corporate office or any of its affiliated vendors.

3.2 Rules of Selling

- Consultants cannot represent another company that offers products similar to Pure Romance.
- Pure Romance Consultants may not advertise or sell products online other than through their personal website. Listing Pure Romance products for sale on another website, online auction, online flea market, or other online outlet would constitute a violation of the terms and conditions of the Consultant Agreement.
- Consultants may not sell Pure Romance products at garage sales, flea markets, or Retail stores.
- If you are a representative for another direct sales company, you cannot combine products at the same party.
- You cannot combine parties with other direct sales representatives. This means that you cannot have a candle party, cosmetics party, or any other themed party alongside your Pure Romance party with a representative from another direct sales company.
- You cannot sell products other than Pure Romance products at your parties or while representing Pure Romance. This includes any and all adult novelties available through stores or outside vendors.
- Pure Romance products may not be sold to individuals under the age of 18 (even if products are considered "mild" in nature).
- You are not permitted to purchase products from other Pure Romance Consultants; however, you may trade with a Pure Romance

Consultant in order to fulfill customer open orders. Consultants may purchase business supplies (such as catalogs, Order Forms, etc.) from other Consultants.

- Products used for demonstrations are not permitted to be sold to customers.

3.3 Party Policies

- Do not charge individuals for booking or attending a party. It has long been a traditional part of the Pure Romance program for Consultants to offer parties on a complimentary basis. The complimentary party is an integral part of our overall marketing philosophy, and it is designed to help Consultants develop both customers and potential Consultant prospects.
- Require that all individuals at the party or party venue be identified as female and at least 18 years old.
- Pure Romance has built a reputation as a professional company with high integrity. In order to represent and build that reputation, Consultants should use proper terminology during demonstrations and refrain from telling overly personal stories during demonstrations.
- Product sampling should only be conducted on a guest's hand, arm, neck, or face.
- Consultants are not permitted to transfer product into unlabeled containers for product sampling or resale.
- Require a private shopping room for confidential ordering, and don't divulge customer purchases.
- All customer open orders should be delivered within two weeks of the date of the party (depending on corporate availability).
- Open customer orders must be delivered directly to the customer, not the Hostess.
- Your Hostess receives 10% of the party subtotal in Free Products, and a Hostess with a party of $150 or more also receives a free gift (must be Pure Romance products). The subtotal includes all party orders and outside orders. The subtotal does not include sales tax or shipping and handling charges.

3.4 Supporting the LGBT Community

Sadly,,, people around the world face violence and inequality – sometimes torture, even execution – because of who they love, how they look, or who they are. It is the belief of Pure Romance that sexual orientation and gender identity are integral aspects of ourselves and should never lead to discrimination, bullying, or abuse.

Pure Romance continues to be a strong supporter of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Intersex (LGBT) communities by helping to empower people to lead healthy and successful lives while building stronger relationships. Consultants are expected to do the same through their efforts to educate and openly offering product to interested adults. Consultants are also expected to deal with such matters with the utmost sensitivity and confidentiality.

3.5 Transgender Attending Parties

Pure Romance has maintained a long-standing policy of providing women a safe place to shop and learn by reserving parties for adult females of at least 18 years old. While maintaining our policy, Pure Romance aims to give support and understanding to those individuals who wish to take, or have taken steps, to present themselves in a gender different to the gender assigned at birth. Pure Romance recognizes that this period of transition can be very complex and difficult for the individual, and wishes to act in a supportive and sensitive way.

Pure Romance Consultants should aim to create an inclusive trans-friendly culture and environment at parties, where all transgender people are treated with dignity and respect in the gender in which they choose to present themselves irrespective of their legal sex.

For the purposes of this policy, Transgender is used to refer to the following:

1. A person proposing to undergo, is undergoing or have undergone a process (or part of a process) for the purpose of reassigning the person's sex by changing physiological or other attributes of sex.
2. People who do not wish to transition permanently to a new gender role, but who identify as genderqueer, gender variant or intersex or who choose to live permanently with a more fluid gender identify.

Currently all jurisdictions in the United States only recognize the two biological sexes of male and female and grant certain rights based on those sexes. Classifying a person's sex as male or female is left to the jurisdiction of the states. As is the case throughout the world, the degree to which a given state recognizes a transgender person as his or her desired sex varies and is dependent on factors such as the steps the person has taken in their transition, such as psychological therapy, hormone therapy, and sex reassignment surgery. Pure Romance acknowledges that many transgender people, particularly transsexuals, have or are seeking to establish a permanent identity as the sex opposite the sex, which they were assigned at birth. While non-binary (genderqueer) transgender people may or may not seek legal recognition of a gender identity other than that indicated by their birth sex. This means a simple check of state identification to verify sex cannot be used for purposes of determining attendance at a party.

Should a Transgender individual who identifies as female wish to attend a party, Consultants are to allow the individual to attend. Pure Romance expects that allowing Consultants to be respectful while handling requests to attend parties from a Transgender individual, is not meant to alter our long-standing policy of reserving parties for adult females of at least 18 years old as a whole. We ask that this policy not be abused for purposes of justifying behavior against our core policies (i.e., justification of couples parties or continually allowing men to be present).

Should a Consultant believe she does not have the proper training or is ill equipped to handle a given situation, she should contact the corporate office for support. A Consultant may also ask to have a party reassigned to a qualified Consultant upon her request.

Transgender individuals wishing to become a Consultant with Pure Romance must contact the corporate office. Additional verification will be required before purchasing a Starter Kit. Pure Romance reserves the right to refuse the request for a kit purchase at its discretion.

3.6 Becoming an Active Consultant

- The Pure Romance Consultant Agreement and the Enrollment Form must be submitted to the Pure Romance corporate office.
 - If a kit is purchased through fax or phone, the original copies must be submitted within 60 days of kit purchase date. Failure to comply will result in the Consultant's account being placed on hold.
 - If a kit is purchased online, all paperwork is submitted automatically.
- Standard Kits must purchase $200 in Retail within 60 days of kit purchase date unless otherwise dictated by promotion or contest rules.
- If a Consultant fails to meet the requirements to become Active within 60 days of her original kit purchase date, she will need to pay a re-enrollment fee or purchase another kit if she wishes to become a Consultant once again.
- The Pure Romance corporate office reserves the right to speak with each new potential Consultant prior to shipping her kit.
- When a new Consultant purchases a Starter Kit that includes automatic Activation, she automatically becomes an Advanced Consultant. No additional Retail order is required. She must; however, submit the paperwork and then meet the requirements to remain Active.

3.7 Maintaining Active Consultant Status

- Advanced Consultants and above must achieve Retail purchases of $200 or more every two consecutive calendar months.
- Personal website orders count towards the minimum to remain Active.
- Should a Consultant (at any level) fail to achieve a minimum of $200 in Retail purchases every two consecutive calendar months, a Consultant's level will change to Inactive.
- If a return or adjustment results in a negative balance below $200 at Retail, the Consultant will lose her Active status and all benefits.
- As an Inactive Consultant, she will not have any additional discount when placing orders and will need to re-enroll to gain these benefits once again.
- As an Inactive Consultant, she may not represent Pure Romance in any way (e.g., selling products, holding parties, conducting trade shows, etc.).
- Any remaining credit on file will be held in escrow and forfeited after a period of one year should the Inactive Consultant not re-enroll. Backorders on the account are cancelled and therefore forfeited immediately.

3.8 Party Locations

Although Pure Romance parties are primarily held in a Hostess's home, on occasion a Consultant may receive a request to hold a demonstration at an alternate location (restaurant, bar, hall, etc.). When this occurs, the Consultant should ensure Party Policies are met, as well as:

- If the party is to be held in a public location, the demonstration must occur in a private/separate room that can be secured from the general public.
- Men—including male servers, male owners, male patrons, etc. cannot be present during the party demonstration.
- There must be a confidential/private shopping room.
