I used it to totally transform my life, generate $40 million to date, and be named in the Inc 500 twice.

We'll get into that later...

Because right now, you want to know two things:

1. How far I actually came from to become a millionaire
2. What the Millionaire Shortcut is and how you can copy it

It's important we go through these in that order to show you how powerful this secret and shortcut truly is and why it is THE best time to act on it.

Before I discovered the Millionaire Shortcut, this was me...

I won't give you the full sob story, but I was a Jazz piano player for about a decade, never making more than $40,000/year.

On top of that, I was $400,000.00 in debt

after losing a franchise restaurant that I had tried to start in a bid to create a better life for myself.

(It's safe to say at that point I didn't know the secret!!)

I was keeping my head above water until I hurt my hand.

Believe it or not, a one-handed Jazz piano player is only half as good as a two-handed one, so all the gigs I was relying on to keep me afloat slowly disappeared.

I got evicted.

My wife left me.

Now, like I said, this isn't about me, my own sob story, and making you feel sorry for me.

This is about you realizing that if I can go from negative $400,000 in my bank account and pretty much down and out to becoming a millionaire...

You can too!

Whether you're in a similar position to what I was back then, or even if you're just sick of the 9-5 grind and seeing other people live the life you want.

The point is: Everyone deserves to live an awesome life, and now everyone can live one with this secret!

What an awesome life looks like it's entirely up to you...

For generations, we've been trained to think inside of the box and not let our dreams get too big.

If they did, we'd be made to feel ashamed, different, or damn right crazy.

But, the world's changing now.

What life looks like can't be put in a single "one size fits all" box anymore like it could 20 or even 10 years ago.

If you want to, you can spend all year traveling.

You don't have to spend 60+ years of your life working towards a retirement you're too tired to enjoy.

You can drive around a fancy car and live in a big house even if you grew up with nothing and were an absolutely nobody just a few years ago.

It's ok to take and pick up your kids from school every day or spend the whole summer messing around with them and not work 9-5 all year round.

You're allowed to become a successful business person and entrepreneur without wearing a suit...

Here's proof...

According to Fortune Magazine:

1,700 NEW MILLIONAIRES ARE CREATED EVERY SINGLE DAY IN THE UNITED STATES ALONE!

We've heard of millionaires and billionaires like Warren Buffet, Bill Gates, Elon Musk, Steve Jobs, and Mark Cuban.

But, you don't hear of the thousands of other millionaires popping up like daisies every single day all over the country (and the world!)

When it comes to millionaires, it's now a case of "who's next?"

Your neighbor? Your colleague?
Your sister or brother? The kid who works at the local grocery store?

It could be ANYBODY... and it could be you!

It's important to realize that almost all of those millionaires are different from the likes of Buffet, Gates, and Jobs in the best possible way - because it benefits you and your shot at achieving the same.

Those guys either had a unique set of circumstances where the stars aligned, and they got their big break or came from money and had an advantage.

As much as what they've achieved is no less admirable, it is a lot less relatable...

This Could Be You!

For years, they were part of a special club where you could look but not touch because you didn't have a chance of being in their league.

Now, according to The Millionaire Next Door, the percentage of first-generation millionaires is 80%.

Millionaire's no longer, as a rule, inherit their money from a prior generation.

The barriers, red tape, and restrictions around incredible life-defining wealth have come up.

It's now a goal that is achievable for anyone...

...you just need to know exactly how!

HOW, is the exact same question I was asking myself when I was $400,000.00 in debt, facing divorce, and unashamedly desperate.

That's when I discovered the digital world of online business.

That's NOT the Millionaire Shortcut...

But, we're getting pretty close.

After I tried out and failed at so many online opportunities, I finally came across some real training, and crucially I found a mentor.

Maybe it was what I'd seen in movies, or how I'd been led to believe by society...

But up until that point, I'd always thought to become rich and successful from scratch in a rags to riches type story; you had to do something extraordinary.

Maybe, you've thought that too?

The problem was, I could never see myself as the crazy scientist with the genius idea, in clouds of smoke finally having that 'AHA' moment.

So, when I found a mentor, I was shocked to learn that I didn't have to reinvent the wheel and create something out of this world to become a millionaire.

If anything, that approach was getting me further away from becoming one.

The fastest way to become a millionaire was actually doing the exact opposite:

It was COPYING OTHER MILLIONAIRES!

THAT'S the secret. I told you it would sound too simple to be true.

BUT, as soon as I had someone to copy and show me how to use the internet and build an online business, everything in my life changed.

I paid off my $400,000.00 in debt in 18 months. I've since generated $40,000,000.00 online. I get to drive nice cars, travel the world, spend time with my new family, and run my life in the exact way I want to.

I'm proof there's power in its simplicity. Plus, when you think about it, the secret makes total sense.

More and more people are becoming millionaires by simply copying others...

Why? Because the digital age and the online business model has made it easier than ever to access all the information they need!

Now, before you run away with the secret...

AN IMPORTANT THING YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE YOU USE THIS SHORTCUT TO CREATE AN AWESOME LIFE

By knowing the secret, you've got the 'HOW.'

Which is copying someone who is already successful...

Now, you need the 'WHAT.'

The two most common and proven ways for average people to become a millionaire are Real Estate and/or building an Online Business.

I'm fortunate enough to have experience in both now, but way back when I first started out, I didn't have the money even to get one foot in the door of Real Estate.

It's still not completely accessible to everybody as it either asks for a whole lot of cash or a whole lot of risk.

For most, both are simply not an option... In fact, forgive me for saying this but it's almost comical.

If people had $10,000's in their bank account that they could produce on a whim like a lot of Real Estate requires - they likely wouldn't be searching for ways to make more money to live a better life.

They'd already have it!

Similarly, most people are trying to get away from risk in their current life.

They don't want to have to rely on their boss for a set salary every month, or the government to give them their pension.

Every day they're risking their entire livelihood by depending on other people to feed their family, put a roof over their head, and pay their bills. They don't want to swap one set of risks for another...

OR worse, even risk losing their job and house in the process and have nothing to show for it either.

That's why I'd always recommend choosing online business.

The two are not crazy dissimilar either in terms of results...

With an online business, you can build assets that produce cash flow and increase over time, just like Real Estate.

The only difference is you don't need a huge lump sum to get started, and there's no huge risk involved.

The WHAT: Building an online business

The HOW: Copying someone successful at it

All you need now is the WHO.

WHO ARE YOU GOING TO COPY THAT'S GOT PLUG-IN, PROVEN, TIME-TESTED METHODS TO EARN MILLIONS ONLINE?

Here's the problem with asking any old millionaire to copy from...

They either won't admit they copied someone else to create their own success - it's the reason why the secret has been kept for so long.

OR, they're scared of sharing the market and losing out on money, so they refuse to tell you the whole story.

OR, they'll say they're too busy to mentor you.

Either way, none of those excuses are going to help you get where you need to go.

BUT the opportunity I have for you will.

Because you took action, proved you're serious about creating an awesome life for you and your family, and are still reading this ebook right now might:

I want you to copy me!

I have 3 top business models I used to personally to go from $400,000 in debt to becoming a millionaire.

Those same 3 business models have also helped people just like you, who probably have little to no business or online experience make up to $5,000 a month, $10,000 a month, and beyond.

I'm ready to pop the hood on all 3 and let you in on everything I do and know, so you can choose the right fit for you and your goals.

All you need is a laptop and an internet connection to get started.

Plus, I'm not going to stop there either.

I'm also going to share what I call the 3 P's which in my opinion are the unsung heroes of the greatest success stories (including my own!). So, to recap:

The WHAT: Online business

The HOW: Copying someone successful at it
